

Ravensong

Daniel Lioneye

Tears of shame from scars of war
Yes, let them fall
Hold my ruins forevermore
I cant let you go
Hold my hand until the break of dawn

Every single time I try to run away and hide
You will find me
Every single night you are the fire in my sky
I'm in love with you

Time has come to say goodbye .
Our auras are calling.
God is dead and so am I.

all that is ours.
Let me sing to you my Ravensong.

Every single time I try to run away and hide
You will find me
Every single night you are the fire in my sky
I'm in love with you

Every single time I try to run away and hide
You will find me
Every single night you are the fire in my sky
I'm in love with you
