

Flashback

Danielle Dax

I never go by labels
I never sure
See a bottle of good things baby
And want for more
I always listen in
Hey yeh yeh yeh yeh yeh
Keep a tally on all the choices honey
If they should show

Flashback-wipe that frown
Flashback-when they put you down
Flashback-never show
Flashback-what you really know

You pay your money to hold me baby
I'm not to blame
For any others who used you badly
Oh such a shame
I always want what's easy
Hey yeh yeh yeh yeh yeh
So intent on a living heaven honey
You'll never know

Flashback-wipe that frown
Flashback-when they put you down
Flashback-never show
Flashback-what you really know

Next minute you're in there fighting
The stakes are high
Never won any major battles
But I always try
I maybe will someday
Hey yeh yeh yeh yeh yeh
All nickels and moonlight-dreaming honey
Oh what a game

Flashback-wipe that frown
Flashback-when they put you down
Flashback-never show
Flashback-what you really know
