Apology Accepted

Danko Jones

You don't know what you're doing, you're going backwards The rings around your eyes are only getting blacker You wear an X on your hand I've got one in my hand Burning me inside, wishing you were dead

Easy to see your life is only for the taking You were doing what you did my heart was breaking It broke, you fucked up real bad You failed to know just what you had

You needed me But you left me The hell alone It has to be And you get What you give You're just so Deceptive

You don't like how we left it 'Cause in the back of your head You regret things that you said Apology accepted Didn't know you're bluffing I thought that I'd feel something But with you I felt nothing

It's too convenient just to say you didn't notice Your life is upside down and always out of focus You're like a hypocrite you swear you never lie When things revealed themselves you should be doing time Fucked up big time, crossing lines That's what you do and then you do it all the time Do you remember how you treated me The shoe is on the other foot and now the blind can see

You needed me But you left me The hell alone It has to be And you get What you give You're just so Deceptive

You don't like how we left it 'Cause in the back of your head You regret things that you said Apology Accepted Didn't know you're bluffing I thought that I'd feel something I think you failed inspection Apology Accepted

You've got a knack for lying Talking loud and then hiding But now look see who's smiling Me motherfucker! And it feels great! It's just a matter of time Before you fade away And I know you're sorry And you want to call me Just to tell me But it's too damn late

You're full of empty gestures You're non-essential It's inconsequential 'Cause you choose your fate Your life's a car crash You shoot your mouth off too fast Who knew it would be me With the last laugh

Hahahaha, yeah

You like to fuck with things and say it didn't happen But I was there your bullshit keeps me laughin' How do you sleep at night with all your lies? Piling up like parking tickets you don't pay the fine

You don't like how we left it 'Cause in the back of your head You regret things that you said Apology Accepted Didn't know you're bluffing I thought that I'd feel something I think you failed inspection Apology Accepted

You've got a knack for lying Talking loud and then hiding But now look see who's smiling
