

Had Enough

Danko Jones

You always think you're right but when you realize
You're wrong you turn your head and pass the buck
(Owohoho)
You're neither here nor there, you're never playing fair
Then wonder why you're always found alone
(Owohoho)
You're always sayin' things and exaggerating
It's hard to know just who you are
(Owohoho)
You keep on praying but things just stay the same
You fail to look and see that everybody's been waiting

When you cry at night alone and don't know why
There is no one left and I'll be walking on
When you burn in hell remember what I've said
You had your chance I've had enough
I've had enough

You're always sayin' things and exaggerating
It's hard to know just who you are
(Owohoho)
You keep on praying but things just stay the same
You fail to look and see that everybody's been waiting

When you cry at night, alone and don't know why
There is no one left and I'll be walking on
When you burn in hell remember what I've said
You had your chance I've had enough
I've had enough

I'm sick of suffering, you're givin' nothing
I need something
I'm sick of suffering, you're givin' nothing
I need something

You're only playing, we're all fading
I'm sick of waiting, waiting
You're only playing, we're all fading
I'm sick of waiting, waiting

When you criticize with your pretty eyes
You drove a stake right through my heart
When you burn in hell remember what I've said
You had your chance I've had enough

I've had enough
I've had enough
I've had enough

I've had enough
I've had enough
I've had enough
