

I Wanna Break Up With You

Danko Jones

I wanna break up with you, right..now
You're driving me crazy and I want out, want..out
You shit on my friends and talk too much, too..much
I know your nagging will never stop, shut..up

You've really let yourself go
We don't have sex no more

I-I-I
I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I-I-I
I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you

All we do is fight but never make up, make..up
You brag a lot and then bitch me out, bitch
You take pleasure in putting me down, get..out
But you can't take what you dish out, fuck..this

There's so much that you're lacking
I find you unattractive

I-I-I
I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I-I-I
I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you

It's the way she moves
It's the way she talks
The way she eats her food
The way she just...well...just her
When she sleeps at night
She keeps me up with her snoring
Every day spent with her is so fucking boring

I lost interest the day that you lied
I played it off like all was fine
It's been eating me up inside
But you know that I hate you

I figured you'd probably leave me
But 2 months has turned into 9
It's 2 years later
And I'm sick and tired

You've really let yourself go
We don't have sex no more
I wouldn't want to even if somebody paid me

I-I-I
I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I-I-I
I wanna break up

I wanna break up with you

I-I-I

I wanna break up

I wanna break up with you

I-I-I

I wanna break up

I wanna break up with you

I-I-I

I wanna break up

I wanna break up with you

I-I-I

I wanna break up

I wanna break up with you

Everybody break up

Everybody break up

Breakup, break up

Everybody break up
