

Beatin' My Head Against The Wall

Danni Leigh

Beatin' my head against the wall
Love can't be figured out at all
I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall

What a situation
The perfect combination
We fit together like a puzzle
There was no mistakin'
A true love in the makin'
I didn't foresee any trouble

So how was I to know he'd be the two-timin' kind
Just sparin' me a heartache with his lies

I looked him in the eye
Said this is my goodbye
You and I will soon be history
He fell down to his knees
Cryin' baby, please
Don't leave me, I'm so sorry

Now I'm all alone, thinkin' I'm the one to blame
'Cause his memory is drivin' me insane

I thought the whole thing through
Don't know what else to do
I'm beatin' my head against the wall
Yeah, I'm beatin' my head against the wall
Beatin' my head against the wall
