Dannii Minogue

Begin To Spin Me Round

When I'm walking down the street I call your name

Inside my head I go insane

Don't you know that it's really making me crazy

There were days when I went completely blind

No time to think and I lost time

Won't believe what's happened to me lately

'Cause every day is the same day

Different faces with no names

Places I've never been before

And every day is the same thing

Different faces with no names

Places I've never been before

And I begin to wonder

Don't you know that it's really making me crazy

And I begin to wonder

Won't believe what's happened to me lately

'Cause every day is the same day

Different faces with no names

Places I've never been before

And every day is the same thing

Different faces with no names

Places I've never been before

And every time I think I'm breaking free

These thoughts return to trouble me

Hanging on to love has left me empty

You're a sinner but you told me you're a saint

Too fast I tripped and lost my way

Can't believe what's happened to me lately

'Cause every day is the same day

Different faces with no name

Places I've never been before

And every day is the same thing

Different faces with no name

Places I've never been before

And I begin to wonder

Don't you know that it's really making me crazy

And I begin to wonder

Won't believe what's happened to me lately

'Cause every day is the same day

Different faces with no name

Places I've never been before

And every day is the same thing

Different faces with no name

Places I've never been before

Walking down the street I call your name

(All this time you led me astray)

And making love to you I do the same

(But now I know you blinded me)

And there were days when I went completely blind

(I thought I was over you, really over you)

No time to think, I lost time

(No, I'm not over you)

And I begin to wonder

Don't you know that it's really making me crazy

And I begin to wonder

Won't believe what's happened to me lately

'Cause every day is the same day
Different faces with no name
Places I've never been before
And every day is the same thing
Different faces with no name
Places I've never been before
And I begin to wonder
