

Love Will Find A Way

Dannii Minogue

You taught me how to find out what was true
Trust enough to give my soul to you
Then my soul be handled by no other man
How I love you now

I am just a moment in your play
Pushed aside, but I won't turn away
Won't rest until I know that I can be with you
On every single night and everyday

Oh, don't you worry, love will find a way
I'll save it for another rainy day
Don't you worry, love will find a way
Love will find a way, love will find a way

Then, when I could never keep you from my door
I did things I've never done before
Felt so good I could have died right then and there
How I miss you now

Tell me there's no other words to say
Fingers burned but I won't run away
As long as I know, baby, I can win
At each and every single game you try to play

Don't you worry, love will find a way
Save it for another rainy day
Don't you worry, love will find a way
Love will find a way

Won't you stay?
Look around and love will find a way
All these players, all the games you've played
Don't you worry, love will find a way

Is it all just a waste of time?
I'll tell you something, baby
There is nothing I won't do
To take you back and make you mine

Won't you stay?
Don't you worry, love will find a way
Save it for another rainy day
Don't you worry love will find a way
(Love will find a way)

Hey, hey
Look around and love will find a way
Save it for another rainy day
Don't you worry, love will find a way

Look around and love will find a way
Think of all the love, a brand new day
Don't you worry, love will find a way
Hey, hey
Don't you worry, love will find a way
