

Take My Time Loving You

Dannii Minogue

I'm awake at night
Without you by my side I can't stop thinking about you
'Cause when I'm wrapped up in your arms it feels so right
Until tomorrow, I'll be waiting for you

When you called to say that you'd be coming home
And it would be forever
I just can't hide it now, I'm so excited that
We'll be together each and everyday

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, feeling so good

I see you everywhere
So babe when you're not there you're always my obsession
I would do anything you wanted me to do
Just tell me, baby, my love is waiting for you

Now you're in my heart, this love will never stop
It's gonna be forever
I just can't hide it now, I'm so excited that
We'll be together each and everyday

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, feeling so good

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, feeling so good

When you called to say that you'd be coming home
And it would be forever
I just can't hide it now, I'm so excited that
We'll be together each and everyday

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, feeling so good

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, over and over, over

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
I'm gonna take my time loving you
Over and over, over and over, and over

I'm gonna take my time loving you
Little by little, closer to you
