

Any more

Danny Fernandes

[1:]

You said you and me
Nothing else can come between, uh
Cold-hearted, words to say
To the one that gave, that heart you took away
I asked for joy, you gave me pain
I asked for sun, you gave me rain
I can't take no more,
I can't brief [?] the rain
And turn around and face the storm

[Bridge:]

So here we go again with a lovefight
Nowadays I feel like I ain't doin' nothing right
I mean the signs were always there, guess it wasn't right
But now I see the light, yeah

[Chorus:]

I'm not gon' stay here and cry
I'm out the door
I just don't have the strength anymore
I'm not gon' stay here and fight with you no more
Cause I just don't have the strength anymore
I just don't have the strength anymore
Cause I just don't have the strength anymore
