

Fkn Lie

Danny Fernandes

Hey!

Ohhh

She claimed she loved me, she said she'd hold me up high
She said she needed my love and without it she would die
She said she would always be honest, never tell me a lie
She swore to even cross her heart and put a needle in her eye.

Where does she come off, standing so strong
When she was the one that
Did it all the wrong

[Chorus:]

She said she want it to love me down
Hold me up till the sky falls down
And crossed her heart and she hoped to die
You know I tried to save.
She said she'd always be mine
Till the day that she die
But that was just a fucking lie
That was just a fucking lie.

Told you I love you and would never leave your side
And I thought that one day I'd be the star that's in your sky,
How did we fall down when we were flying so high?
I guess our love wasn't enough to keep you by my side
Where does she come on?
Standing so strong
When she was the one that
Did it all the wrong

[Chorus (x3):]

She said she want it to love me down
Hold me up till the sky falls down
And crossed her heart and she hoped to die
You know I tried to save.
She said she'd always be mine
Till the day that she die
But that was just a fucking lie
That was just a fucking lie.

She said she want it to love me down
Hold me up till the sky falls down
And she hopes to die
You know that I tried to save you.
