Good Enough

Dara Maclean

I got to keep my head up one more day and get by Look perfect on the outside But I'm dying on the inside I could work so hard, slave the day away But end up broke tryin' to find my place In my attempt to prove I'm worthy But it's already done

So I won't spend my whole life Paying my own price Tryin' to be good enough I'm gonna just let You love me Finally see me the way You see I'm believing Your grace is enough for me

Thank God I don't have to hold on with my own strength I'm not the one who saved me So I'm trusting You completely 'Cause the best in me is only You I run out, but You come through Now I'm never looking back, You don't see the past All You see is I'm forgiven

So I won't spend my whole life Paying my own price Tryin' to be good enough I'm gonna just let You love me Finally see me the way You see I'm believing Your grace is enough for me

If You said it, I believe it If You did it, it's completed Ooh I was hurting, You were healer I was broken, You're redeemer

So I won't spend my whole life Paying my own price Tryin' to be good enough

So I won't spend my whole life Paying my own price Tryin' to be good enough I'm gonna just let You love me Finally see me the way You see I'm believing Your grace is enough for me

Your grace is enough, it's enough for me
