

I Belong With You

Dara Maclean

I was looking for the real thing
I was craving something tangible
But the truth is I was searching
Somewhere love don't ever like to go
You found me huddled in the shadows
Somewhere I thought that You would never be
But the truth is You were chasing
Chasing me down
Never stopped 'til I was free

Now I run to Your arms
They won't let go of me
When it's good, when it's bad, You're all that I need

Your love is the place that I go
The open door at the end of the road
You're all I'll ever need, my only guarantee
I know I'm home
'Cause You go to the ends of the earth
You never stop, never call off the search
Your love is real, Your love is strong
You own my heart and I belong with You

There's a reason I believe it
People change when they get touched by You
I've been affected by the power of Your love
What You've done to me is proof

So I will run to Your arms
They won't let go of me
When it's good, when it's bad, You're all that I need

Your love is the place that I go
The open door at the end of the road
You're all I'll ever need, my only guarantee
I know I'm home
'Cause You go to the ends of the earth
You never stop, never call off the search
Your love is real, Your love is strong
You own my heart and I belong with You

Nobody else but you
You're the only one who won't give up
And I know I belong with You

Your love
It's all I'll ever need, my only guarantee
I know I'm home
You go to the ends of the earth
You never stop, never call off the search
Your love is real, Your love is strong
You own my heart and I belong with You
With You, I belong with You, with You
