

Ab Umbra Lumen

Dark Lunacy

It was never enough
What the Age Of Gold was to me - it was fear behind the veil of Bride of Night

I've ran from suffering Life was a prodigy of eternal sheer
The Widow never thought the same way of me

I have become an heartless one
An epitaph of myself
Deity's shame
No paradise
Got to accept that I'm lost
In the dark
In pain

Ab Umbra Lumen - Light is taking me
I am the void - through martyrdom from barrenness I'll flee - just once more The wanderer is looking for atonement for the shining pride, to cleanse the riverside, Tear apart Her veil of lies - rip Her heart!

It has come the time, to get out of this wood
I want to die facing Her - in her eyes

I have become an heartless one
An epitaph of myself
Deity's shame
No paradise

I'm lost
In the dark
In pain

To the Moon I sold the weakest of souls and all my Sense
and the whitest of words and my pure and the timeless beauty devoured my Mind
'cause I feared the End

I'm lost
In pain

"Through my endless downfall
I find my missing soul
Inside over my shadows
I tried to save the dreamer "
