

Howl

Dark Lunacy

Gaunt and pale
I count my endless scars

I've tried and tried to open up my heart
searching for that spark

Ignite and purify
my empty star
We're running out of time

Set the pace
of this decay
A deathly hour
is closing in

Howling
to the sacred
Father of Time:
scatter my embers!
Don't let your son
desecrate my fate
my grave

Right,
howling against
your control!
Show me
what I'll remember
what will remain
in this fog!
Lord, you shan't
control my path!
I'll show you

how we're all just
an echo in Time

"Forget the past
and dream the future
burns in your hands
the flag of death"

Look at me,
I'll live my shameless life
I'll try
and try!
Look into my eyes,
I'll stop the swing of ages

Lower your gaze,
what can you see?
Prayers are meant
for those who believe
For our stubborn doubts
To dignify our faults

The swing of your blade is taking my core Nothing remains
when the shadows are gone

What I cry for, it's mine I'll drink my tears and howl

Right,
howling against
your control!
Show me
what I'll remember
what will remain
in this fog!
Lord, you shan't
control my path!
I'll show you
how we're all just
an echo in Time

"Forget the past
and dream the future
burns in your hands
the flag of death"

Look at me,
I'll live my shameless life
I'll try
and try!
Look into my eyes,
I'll stop the swing of ages
and I'll save my soul
tonight,
again.
