

The Rain After the Snow

Dark Lunacy

Rain fell
Rain kissed me
Snow died
back to my earth

Springtime, what takes me?
I'm here, but my drapes

They will fall forevermore
before the world in fear Life, cry your tears
leave behind
memories of a past
hard to leave

Spring, comest thou!
I forgot the last Snow...
I've been stolen of the prayer of a child
All their answers were vain, help me to hide my seasons...

They will fall forevermore
before the world in fear
Life, cry your tears
leave behind
memories of a past
hard to leave
and heal
hard to conceal

SNOW COME BACK
NE'ER LEAVE ME

Snow will fall forevermore
at the feet of a rainy soul

Let your will soar let the rise of a dream freeze the sea of despair

Rain will fall forevermore
over the fate of all men

Snow will fall forevermore
