

Tide of My Heart

Dark Lunacy

Fighting against my solitude, against my broken rhymes

I am lost in your wound - I know in the dead of the night you'll light up all my way

A flash that crossed time
Not to throw to wind

We walked through the abyss
A story in our hands - of two souls in the dead calm and storm

Everything - an unsung chant
Nothingness - the void unclimbed

Fighting against this new prospect, Against a million tears

'Cause I'm lost in your dream - I know in this fading life - I can't stand reality

Fragments of my life never fall into symmetry
No regrets - will never fail the symmetry

Марина, ты волна моего сердца

Everything - an unsung chant
Nothingness - the void unclimbed

"I will never get used to you, neither to being surprised, nor to the private thoughts about you either.
You are what I will dream about tonight, what will be dreamt about me tonight.
(To dream or to be dreamt of?).
An unknown "I" in a strange dream.
I never expect you, I always arouse you.
If someone dreams of us together..."

A flash that crossed time
Not to throw to wind

We walked through the abyss
of sand and water in dead calm and storm

Everything - an unsung chant
Nothingness - the void unclimbed

Everything - an unsung chant
Nothingness - the void unclimbed

Fighting against my solitude, the one of a ghost...
