

Take This Pain

Dark the Suns

Night has fallen, like the rain.
In this world of darkened sun.
In silence I grieve.

In my life I never reign.
Beneath this world of forever rain.
Seize my clothes, leave tonight.
I can't see or hear through my fucking fright.

See this world go from up to down.
When this darkness hit the light.
In silence I grieve.

In my life I never reign.
Beneath this world of forever rain.
Seize my clothes, leave tonight.
I can't see or hear through my fucking fright.

Seize my angels, three thousand worlds.
Seize my angel forevermore.

In my life I never reign.
Beneath this world of forever rain.
Seize my clothes, leave tonight.
I can't see or hear through my fucking fright.
