A Paradox with Flies

Darkest Hour

These solemn words whispered in a haze Could you even see me standing there All wrapped up in insecurities that Wont stop spilling out all over me

And in your eyes I see so much more Than that place you always go back to You can pull yourself away from That face that constantly haunts you

A graceful approach that you carry on And carry yourself in such a way That could never be recreated

And in your eyes I see so much more Than that place you always go back to You can pull yourself away from That face that constantly haunts you

We're in too deep, go back to sleep
If this feels to synthetic then its all be a dream
Calling on our contracts
Controlled contained under pressure

So fall forward into me and let it all pour out You owe this to yourself, and theres only one way out

So rest your head and close your eyes
Just one more step till we're over the edge
