

Can't Explain

Darkseed

shadow-veiled, passing years i can't see the sun where's the land of friends? darkness conquers us when the dawn of night begins deep beneath my chilling fears lives the ocean of my tears i don't understand the world bodies frozen, love stands still as the sun was doomed and i turn to look to you there are no words i can use i can't explain the goings of the world dark and cold
i can't explain misery
i can't explain cruelty i can't explain success of lying i turn away anger pounds, sorrow surrounds i can't stand this pain neverending emptiness everyday we look away we are all alone

i am sorry
i can't explain cruelty
misery
