Darkwell

Man as creation misled by the own mythology
Idea of a creator power, seems a necessity
Heretic thoughts lead to religious accuse
So arise the wish to be a human prometheus

The cyber queen awakes, rises from the bench
A mechanical creation, attended by oily stench
The conception shakes, a new life is born
Life, a new mutation, is it a malediction to scorn

Body parts the next lyrical approach to shatter
Frankenstein creator of first cyborg life form
A promethean impulse some believes will deform

The cyber queen awakes, rises from the bench
A mechanical creation, attended by oily stench
The conception shakes, a new life is born
Life, a new mutation, is it a malediction to scorn

Fiction and art reliable transporter of heresy
Dangerous thoughts will again come to clarity
A gynoid, seems the ultimate agent provocateur
The maschinenmensch promotes men to createur
