

Bow Down

Darkwell

The gods are a fatal guess, wierd creation in humans mind if there would be gods, not to bear to be none, what odds

God's a thought, twists the even devious misanthropic, lore of the one, grievous

Bow down before me devils bow down before me gods bow down before me mankind
we resist all odds

It is the human will it is the bringer of joy away from god and goddesses possible if they are real

God's a thought, twists the even devious
misanthropic, lore of the one, grievous

we resist all odds
