

One Lifetime

Darude

I believe in us, and I'm always here for you
You believe in love, the way you used to
I'm still hanging on, but we're right here on the edge
Of breaking up, crashing down, and giving in

I can see it now, when I'm finally without you
When the storm is gone, and the waves are coming in
I can feel them now, when I'm finally without you
I'm breaking down, I'm crashing down, and giving in
