

Adeline

Dave Barnes

You're sleeping now
As I'm awake
Across the sea
So far away

I can't forget
Your pretty smile
Your tiny hands
Who reach for mine

Life takes patience
Patience takes time
I can't get you off my mind
Adeline

The note you wrote
I read it still
I swore I would
I always will

So I'll kiss the wind
That skims the sea
In hopes it brings
You back to me

Life takes patience
Patience takes time
I can't get you off my mind
Adeline

The space between us now
Will all work for the Good somehow

Life takes patience
Patience takes time
I can't get you off my mind
Adeline
Can't get you off my mind
Can't get you off my mind
Adeline

Patience takes time
