

Carry On, San Vicente

Dave Barnes

Everyone is bound to stand some pain
Everyone is due their share of change
Remember every shadow
Just proves that there's a sun

Carry on, San Vicente
Oh I know you could stand some rain
For every hill there is to climb,
There's a view on the other side
Carry on, San Vicente, carry on

Memories don't make us who we are
There's a silver lining in every scar
Everything's forgiven
Forgetting's up to you

Carry on, San Vicente
Oh I know you could stand some rain
For every hill there is to climb,
There's a view on the other side
Carry on, San Vicente, carry on

When the dusk won't turn to dawn
When the sunshine seems long gone
When the worries just won't seem to move along

Carry on, San Vicente
Oh I know you could stand some rain
For every hill there is to climb,
There's a view on the other side
Carry on, San Vicente, take, carry on
Carry on
Carry on
