

Chasing Dreams

Dave Barnes

I've been up cos I just can't sleep
All the fears getting the best of me
Every night, it's a fight, these doubts dancing in the dark
Feeling like every prayer I pray
Only makes it up about halfway
Every day, it's the same, just trying not to fall apart

Well it's tough here stuck in the middle
Trying to work out what it means
Pretending my heart don't break just a little
When it ain't quite what it seems

Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing, chasing, I swear my heart's breaking
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Ain't what it seems, seems, seems
I feel my heart breaking, but I won't stop chasing

I admit it, I ain't been myself
Just my impression of somebody of else
Acting like, I'm alright, hoping that something will change
A little light and a little hope
How about a hint at how the ending goes
So I know, I can cope When everything stays the same

Well it sucks here stuck in the middle
Trying to work out what it means
Pretending my heart don't break just a little
Cause it ain't quite what it seems

Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing, chasing, I swear my heart's breaking
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Ain't what it seems, seems, seems
I feel my heart breaking, but I won't stop chasing

Well it's tough here stuck in the middle
Trying to work out what it means
Pretending my heart don't break just a little
When it ain't quite what it seems

Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing, chasing, I swear my heart's breaking
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Ain't what it seems, seems, seems
I feel my heart breaking, but I won't stop chasing

Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Chasing, Chasing, I swear my heart's breaking
Chasing dreams, dreams, dreams
Ain't what it seems, seems, seems
I feel my heart breaking, but I won't stop chasing
