

Glow Like the Moon

Dave Barnes

She may say goodbye but lord her eyes
Glow like the moon

She, she's gonna hurt you
She, she's gonna break your heart
She, she don't even know it
That's the hardest part

You'll be laughing when she's smiling
Broken when she don't
Begging for her kissing
Dying when she won't
Waiting on I love you's
That never come too soon
She may say goodbye but lord her eyes
Glow like the moon

She, she ain't a liar
She, never means no harm
See, the hearts just like a fire
Lord it keeps you warm

You'll be laughing when she's smiling
Broken when she don't
Begging for her kissing
Dying when she won't
Waiting on I love you's
that never come too soon
She may say goodbye but lord her eyes
Glow like the moon

You'll be laughing when she's smiling
Broken when she don't
Begging for her kissing
Dying when she won't
Waiting on I love you's
that never come too soon
She may say goodbye but lord her eyes

You'll be laughing when she's smiling
Broken when she don't
Begging for her kissing
Dying when she won't
Waiting on I love you's
that never come too soon
