

What We Want, What We Get

Dave Barnes

Call me courageous,
Cause that's what I'm trying to be.
And break through this silence,
That's breaking it's way through me.

Without you I'm a sinner,
Without you I'm a saint.
Without you I can do it,
Without you I just can't.

What am I gonna do without you by my side?

Speak to me somehow,
A word's all I need to hear.
To call for the sunlight,
That left when you disappeared.

Without you I'm a sinner,
Without you I'm a saint.
Without you I can do it,
Without you I just can't.

What am I gonna do without you by my side?
