Hiding Behind The Curtain

Dave Dudley

I am doing somethin' I've never done before I just told her I was goin' out and loudly slammed the door I slipped back in to hide myself my jealous heart was hurtin' From all the things I thought I'd hear while hid behind the cur tain Hiding behind the curtain I know that I will catch them now that they think I'm gone Hiding behind the curtain It's hard to stand still when you're where you don't belong Well not a thing has happened and I've stood here half the nigh t I've had lots of time to wonder if I'm wrong or right But jealousy has eaten up this busting heart and soul And sentenced me to hide behind the courtain till I know At last there goes the telephone he must be on his way But then I felt as small as nothing when I heard her say Please stop spreading rumors I don't love you that's for certai n Then I knew she still loved this fool hiding behind the curtain Hiding behind the curtain...
