

Kingdom

Dave Gahan

Can you feel me coming open the door it's only me I have that desperate feeling in trouble is where I'm going to be

I know you hear me knocking so open the door and set me free

If there's a kingdom beyond it all is there a god who loves us all do we believe in love at all
I'm still pretending, I'm not a fool

So in your infinite wisdom show me how this life should be all your love and glory doesn't mean that much to me

If there's a kingdom beyond it all
do we believe in love at all
I'm still pretending, I'm not a fool
