

Harmony & Melody

Dave Mason

When you're gone from me
I can't take it
I'm a drift at sea
With my sails torn
You have set me free
With your good lovin'
You're a sheltered calm
In a raging storm

I have played the fool
For no reason
I have fallen down
Many times before
Looked for something new
To believe in
But without your love
I'd be lost for sure

When all your dreams are gone
And you feel that you can't carry on

Just remember you're a child of
The harmony and the melody of love

When the magic goes away
And you feel that love has had its day
You may think that you search in vein
But the harmony and the melody still remains

When you're gone from me
I can't take it
I'm a drift at sea
With my sails torn
You have set me free
With your good lovin'
You're a sheltered calm
In a raging storm
