

Paralyzed

Davey Suicide

The look and the way she speaks
I wanna believe her
Tears roll down her cheeks
I cannot mistreat her

She lied for the first time
I bought every line

I'll run and hide
I'll take another
Just so I am
Numb inside
I am ready to be paralyzed

The visions always replay
Like a black and white movie
I'm looking for the power switch
It cuts right through me

She lied for the last time

I'll run and hide
I'll take another
Just so I am
Numb inside
I am ready to be paralyzed

You lift me up my fallen angel
You make it so, I don't feel anymore
