

Out of Tune

David Choi

I don't mind at all
If it's a little bit out of tune
It's a not so picture perfect day
You don't match, and your hair's all over the place
It's quite amusing, oh what a sight
I can see much more, thank you Mr. morning light

I like to know that I'm alive
And I'm saying it's all right

A bit of somewhat healthy carelessness
Is what I need, makes life interesting
Purple hair and green dress
Does it really need to make so much sense?

We all trip over stuff
Just laugh and stay lying in the mud

I'll tell you if it makes me feel uncomfortable
And you can sit and watch me feel this way

I'll tell you if it makes me feel uncomfortable
And you can stand up to me and say
