

Slave

David Coverdale

You know I didn't mean to hurt you baby
I didn't really mean to cause you pain
So if you want I will cover you with kisses
And I will be your slave again

I need your love and understanding baby
But you changed the lock on your front door
If you want I will cover you with roses
I want to be your slave again

I want to be your
I want to be your
I want to be your slave slave

You know I'm getting tired of back door loving
You give me all my heart desires
Lord have mercy when I slipped and fell and I broke your heart
I want to be your slave again

If you want I will cover you with kisses
Sweet surrender to your touch
If you want take all I give
I want to be your slave
I want to be your slave again
I want to be your slave baby

So here I am waiting to see you baby
Stacking roses around your front door
I miss your love I miss your loving touch now mama
I want to be your slave again
