

Caribbean Partytime

David Hasselhoff

Down in Barbados, Jamaica too
It's partytime for me and you
In Guadaloupe and Martinique
And the Dominican Republic
They're dancing limbo under clear blue skies
In the tropical paradise
They're drinking rum in the hot sunshine
It's Caribbean partytime

It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime

Forget your troubles, forget your cares
Calypso music's ringing in your ears
Down on the beach both night and day
You can hear those steel bands play
The pirateships go sailing by
Under the Caribbean sky
The sea is green and the sky is blue
It's partytime for me and you

It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime

It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime
It's Caribbean partytime...
