

Fly

David Hodges

Wanting less, getting more
Hard to explain, harder to ignore
Wishing this world would just slow down
But in this life, in this race, you gotta keep movin to keep yo ur place
Often forgetting why you're around

Times you wanna fly, fly away
To fly, fly away so high
To fly away

Looking back at the cost
Searching to find what was lost
Building forever on a missing piece
But I have come to tell of Him with love in His voice
And hope in His hand
Holding the answers He offers with ease

Letting you fly to fly away
To fly, fly away so high, to fly away
Cause you know you wanna fly
To fly away to fly, fly away so high
To fly away

Just leave this world behind
The pain that it brings
Cause when Jesus died on the cross
He gave you your wings, yes he gave you your wings to fly

To fly away, to fly, fly away so high, to fly away.
Cause you know you wanna fly
Fly away to fly, fly away so high
To fly away.

Wanting less, getting more
Hard to explain, harder to ignore
