

Machinehead

David Hodges

Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in

Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in

Tied to a wheel, our fingers got to feel
Bleeding through a tourniquet smile
Spinning on a whim, a slide to the right
I felt you like electric light
For our love
For our fear
For our rise against the years and years and years

Breathe in
Breathe in
Breathe in

Got a machinehead, better than the rest
Green to red, machinehead
Got a machinehead, s'better than the rest
Green to red

Deaf dumb and thirty
Starting to deserve this
Leaning on my conscience wall
Blood is like wine
Unconscious all the time
If I had it all again
I'd change it all

Got a machinehead, better than the rest
Green to red, machinehead
Got a machinehead, s'better than the rest
Green to red,
I walk from my machine
I walk from my machine
Breathe in, breathe out
I walk from my machine
I walk from my machine

Got a machinehead, better than the rest
Green to red, machinehead
Got a machinehead, s'better than the rest
Green to red
Got a machinehead, better than the rest
Green to red, machinehead
Got a machinehead, s'better than the rest
Green to red
