

Tell Her Something

David Hodges

Tell her she is all that's beautiful-
Tell her everything's my fault.
Tell her this is not what I had planned-
But tell her I am moving on.

Tell her love will come around, someday.
Please tell her not to cry.
I never meant for love to leave her cold tonight.
Please tell her that I tried to spare her all my lies.
Tell her something, yeah.

Tell her I am lost in misery-
Tell her I have lost my mind.
Tell her love is such a mystery, yeah.
Tell her tunnels end in light.

Tell her love will come around, someday.
Please tell her not to cry.
I never meant for love to leave her cold tonight.
Please tell her that I tried to spare her all my lies.
Tell her something-
I cannot say all that my heart longs to tell her.
But nothing can change-
That all of these words are not enough.

Tell her she is all that's beautiful-
Tell her everything's my fault.

Please tell her not to cry, yeah.
I never meant for love to leave her cold tonight.
Please tell her that I tried to spare her all my lies.
Tell her something, yeah.
Tell her something.
