

The Line It Curves

David Lynch

Goin' out
get in my car
the way you've been treatin' me baby ain't comin' back your way savin' my money for a rainy day
it's rainy, baby

a certain way
bend back to the start
'cause you're the woman who broke my heart

i just won't be comin' home today or tomorrow either, baby
goin' out
in my car

'cause you're the only one that can mend this heart
