

Nobody Knows

David Nail

Headlights shine across the field
But they won't find us here
Heaven knows how long we'll go
I'll give it my best, my dear
Hmm

I can count a million ways
You hold all my cards
Words ain't near enough for me
You've got my head and my heart

Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
How old love grows

Secrets fade into the wind
But they won't find a trace
Why can't they be colorblind?
Break from the chains of hate

Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
How old love grows, grows

Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
Nobody knows, nobody knows
