

You are a fighter
You would never give up
Here is your ladder
Climb to the very top

Enjoy the battle
Of everyone around
We're caught in struggle
For people's broken hearts

Guess we are winning
Look how they start to rise
Jealousness and hatred
The signs of success are ours

Have a quick soda
Get back and let's continue
This fight is over
Next will come up out of the blue

Be only who you are
Defend all of your flaws
Trust what you've always trusted
Don't often get too mad

Instead of happy
Why don't you try fulfilled
You're almost feeling
The way I want you to feel

Write me a letter
Write down all that you've learned
I will not read it
Do it just for yourself

Be only who you are
Defend all of your flaws
Trust what you've always trusted
Don't often get too mad

Use all of what you hear
To build your favorite dream
Everything holds us back
Try to make out a thing out of that

A thing out of that
A thing out of that
