

Dried Up

Dawn of Ashes

You are killing your spirit to leave nothing inside
Refilled with disease
Showing ugliness on the outside
You are the end to all that is good
You are the end
The end of yourself
Your life is dried up
The soul is dried up
and won't be rebuilt again
This body is so hollow
Dried up and can't be rebuilt again
The soul is dried up
and won't be rebuilt again
This body is so hollow
Dried up and can't be rebuilt again
Dried up
Your heart feels dead
Empty veins
Cold and decrepit
Dried up
You feel like a failure Wipe the fucking blood off the walls and take control of your fucking life
Your life is dried up
The soul is dried up
and won't be rebuilt again
This body is so hollow
Dried up and can't be rebuilt again
This body is so hollow
Dried up and can't be rebuilt again
