

Slaves To The Addiction

Dawn of Ashes

Addict to the need to bandage the pain
Addict to the drug that starves the void
Addict to the lover that rejects the need
Addict to the faith that needs to reveal its holiness
Addict to the disease that destroys your life
Addict to words that creates discomfort

We are addicts in this world
We are fighting to stop the pain
13th step placed on your victim's life
We are addicts
We are shameful addicts

We are addicts to our misery
We are addicts to hate our destiny
All the excuses to live with the pain
We are addicts
Goddamn fucking addicts

We see the bones crumbling down in the mud
We see the corpses foaming from their mouths
We see society for what it really is
A wasteland born out of the devolving disease

We are addicts in this world
We are fighting to stop the pain
13th step placed on your victim's life
We are addicts
We are shameful addicts

We are addicts to our misery
We are addicts to hate our destiny
All the excuses to live with the pain
We are addicts
Goddamn fucking addicts
