

Heaven

Dawn Richard

You had my heart, but didn't love it
I gave you every piece of me 'til there was nothin'
You had my soul, we had a covenant
Till you sold it for a dream that wasn't finished.

Heaven knows that we don't care
Heaven knows she can't compare
Heaven showed me love's not there
Heaven knows it's just a prayer
I broke all the walls for you
I burned them down for you to win!
I should have just let you lose
And maybe you would have stayed
Let's pause on forever
Press play on it never
I'll do it again
I will do it again

I broke all the walls for you
I burned them down for you to win!
I put my heart in you
Without a doubt, a second guess.

Heaven knows that we don't care
Heaven knows she can't compare
Heaven showed me love's not there
Heaven knows it's just a prayer
I broke all the walls for you
I burned them down for you to win!
I should have just let you lose
And maybe you would have stayed
Let's pause on forever
Press play on it never
I'll do it again
I will do it again
