Dawn Richard

Girl, I'm only glad if you're satisfied
Oh, let's f8ck on this bed of roses
I want it to last for a moment
When I bury myself deep inside your love
Baby don't rush, just bury your face inside your pillow

I wanna explore every motherf*cking place in your body
And when you're gone, I know I'm gonna miss your body

We don't need no cameras
Cause this gon' still be a movie
We gon' still make a movie
And we don't need no extras
And let me just please you
Let's get a move on

Turn over lay on your stomach
And Ima make this click so real
I keep it one hundred
Hello, that passes through your thigh
And the pain that feels so good
You can't help but cry

I wanna explore every motherf*cking place in your body
And when you're gone, I know I'm gonna miss your body

We don't need no cameras
Cause this gon' still be a movie
We gon' still make a movie
And we don't need no extras
And let me just please you
Let's get a move on

We don't need no cameras, no
Cause this gon' still be a movie
We gon' still make a movie
And we don't need no extras
And let me just please you
Let's get a move on
