

One Cheque From The Street

Dayglo Abortions

there comes a time you have to run. too fucked in the head to be makin sense. break things up that hold you down. not waking up till you hit the ground. the phone is ringing my head is spinning. my boss is screaming and i'm not going to work! i gotta jump on my skateboard cruise on down to the watering hole. i don't care how drunk i get as long as i don't break my board. the wallet's shrinking keep on drinking. the landlord's screaming and i'm not going home! wake up, i don't give a shit. what happens to me in a couple weeks i don't mind the poverty style. live in denial. bills are piling, no ones paying. mommy's screaming and i'm not going to church!!!
