

Not Coming In

Dayshell

Just look around the silhouette
Of all of you is getting older
Did you really think that you can speak
Like all of this is fucking fine

I want you to leave
I've heard it before
And you're not coming in
No
I've heard you before

Excuse me while I resurrect this cigarette
This isn't over
No
To my surprise well suited lies
They slowly leak right through your teeth

I want you to leave
I've heard it before
And you're not coming in
No
I've heard you before
I've heard you before

Sounds like you're onto something here
I guess you got it all figured out
My patience is over 1 2 many times

Are you fucking with me?
Are you fucking with me?

I want you to leave
I've heard it before
And you're not coming in
No
I want you to leave
I've heard you before
You're not coming in
