

Land Of The Living

Daze

You gave him some good years now you'd like them back
Mistakes become clearer after the fact
Now when you pick up the pieces You can't make them fit
Don't waste all your time trying to make sense of it.

Just hurry back to the land of the living
Things have changed since you've been gone
The world is turning in the land of the living
Take a deep breathe and life goes on Life goes on
Come down from that dark cloud What's done is done
Don't go around believing you're the only one that ever felt heartache turn to regret
Aww, we've all got something we'd like to forget
That's right

Lean on my shoulder and whisper your tears
We all need someone to echo our fears Ohhhh

In the land of living the world is turning
Life goes on
In the land of living the world is turning
Life goes on
