

Rage

De/Vision

Last night I killed you in my dream,
I was afraid it felt so real.
Everybody is addicted, underneath the skin,
my rage is not an image of the world I'm living in.

Rage! My rage, is taking over,
Pain! Your pain, will soon be over,
Rage! My rage, is taking over,
Pain! your pain.

Last night I killed you in my dream,
today I'm gonna make it real.
Everyone's is a sinner baby and so are you.
We don't really need to listen, for the things we do.

Rage! My rage, is taking over,
Pain! Your pain, will soon be over,
Rage! My rage, is taking over,
Pain! Your pain.

My rage, my rage.
