

Ready To Die

De/Vision

Got to be strong
Better be strong
Do the best that you can
Do what needs to be done

Could be painful
In the extreme
Go to the edge
Pick the bone clean
If you know what I mean

Say, say what you've got to say
Your words don't matter anyway
Words don't matter anyway

Taste the ultimate sacrifice
Are you ready to die
Ready to die
Ready to die for good this time
'Cause I'm ready to die

Got to be strong
Better be strong
Put up a good fight
And what it cannot be won

You don't mean much to me right now
All you do is sew seeds of doubt
I invented your routes

Say, say what you've got to say
Your words don't matter anyway
Words don't matter anyway

Taste the ultimate sacrifice
Are you ready to die
Ready to die
Ready to die for good this time
'Cause I'm ready to die
